PREPARE FOR FIVE POWERS NAVY PARLEY

Very Elaborate Arrangements Being Made for London Conference on Reductions of Navies

HOLD PRIMARY IN HOUSE OF LORDS

Newspapers From All Over the World to Be Represented by Small Army of Journalists

LONDON, Dec. 6.—Arrangements of the most elaborate kind are under way for the naval conference, according to information given the Canadian Press today. The thirty actual delegates to the conference will be attended by about 150 experts. But this formidable body of deliberative opinion will be eclipsed in numbers by the newspapermen.

IN UPPER HOUSE

The plenary conference will open on January 21 in the Royal Gallery of the House of Lords, the same magnificent chamber in which the British Empire Service League entertained the wearers of the Victoria Cross recently. The House of Lords is jealous of its privilege. It has given the conference this hospitality willingly, but has stipulated that other portions of the Palace of Westminster are not to be available.

However, this plenary session will hardly furnish more than an impressive send-off to deliberations of a far more important and intimate character, the venue of which, through the King's graciousness, will be at St. James' Palace, a building far more impressive in its significance even than the House of Lords. St. James' offers a fair amount of accommodation for those having business with the conference. Already work is under way on installing extensive telephone equipment.

CHARLES T'S ROOM
One of the rooms placed at the disposal of the writers from the world's press will be that in which King Charles I slept his last night on earth on the eve of his execution, and slept very calmly, too, if historical records are correct.

Passes for admission to the Palace will be issued to persons authorized, but precautions are being taken to insure they do not fall into irresponsible hands.

Ship That Fought a Way Through Great Gale

THE photographs here show the steamship City of Hamilton, seen after her forty-hour battle with running seas and freezing gale on Lake Ontario, as she won her way into Toronto harbor. Left is Chief Officer O. St. Omant, of the City of Hamilton. The vessel arrived in port shrouded in frozen spray and a good forty hours overdue. During her struggle on the open sea her crew was forced to chop ice away from the deck and fixtures so that the men could move around.

Col. McAlpine and Party Now Safe Back in Winnipeg After Months of Hardships in North

JOYFUL REUNIONS AFTER ABSENCE

WINNIPEG, Dec. 6.—A chapter of stirring adventures—the greatest in the history of Canadian aviation—was closed here this afternoon, when the giant planes of the McAlpine party soared in from the North to a perfect landing on the ice of the Red River, at the Brandon Avenue aerial base of the Western Canada Airways.

Colonel C. D. H. McAlpine, and his seven mates, rescued from the perils of the barren lands where they had been lost to all knowledge of the outside world for fifty-four days, had returned to civilization far from the treacherous snow and ice of the far off Arctic shores.

FATALITY AT GREAT CENTRAL LAKE CAMP

Superintendent of Logging Operations Instantly Killed When Thrown Against Railway Truck

WIDELY KNOWN IN NORTHWEST

PORT ALBERT, Dec. 6.—Mr. Jack Swanson, superintendent of logging operations for the Great Central Mills, and reported to be unsurpassed in this line of work throughout the Northwest, was instantly killed at noon yesterday at the camp near Great Central Lake.

According to eyewitnesses, Mr. Swanson was superintending the rigging of a tree to be used in the operations. The signal was given to the engineer operating the derrick to take in the slack of the cable, and this, in tightening up, struck Mr. Swanson, throwing him with such force against a railway truck that his neck was broken.

Mr. Swanson, who is survived by his widow, was well known to the logging and lumber industry throughout British Columbia and Washington State.

Nationalist Government Now Gravely Menaced by Rapid Spread of Revolt

SHANGHAI, Dec. 6.—The mutiny Tuesday of several thousand Nationalist Government soldiers at Pukow, has grown into a rebellion in several provinces of Central China, the declared object being the overthrow of the Government, and its President, Chiang Kai-Shek. Other rebels continue to threaten Canton, chief city of South China. Renewed raids by Russian troops are reported to have taken place Wednesday in Western Manchuria.

Nanking, China's capital, was placed under martial law tonight to prevent upward developments while the Government troops marched northward to meet rebel forces estimated at 30,000, reported moving upon the capital from their base at Pengpu, eighty miles distant.

LOYALISTS DEFEATED

A short way beyond Wuyi, only thirty-five miles north of Nanking, 15,000 Government troops clashed with the rebel advance, the loyalists suffering sharp defeat. Apparently halted by this reverse, the Nationalists were reported to be entrenching at Wuyi. Other rebels advancing to the Wuyi front were unmolested by Nationalist forces in the North. Only two members of the ill-fated fleet are still missing, the schooners Neptune and Lloyd Jack.

Five seamen were taken off the Northern Light today by the Baltic and the schooner was abandoned. It was a daring rescue, made in heavy and dangerous seas, and it resulted in the death of one of the Northern Lights crew, Rex Parson, aged twenty.

SIGHTED BY LINER

The big liner sighted the disabled schooner about 800 miles southeast of Cape Race, according to a radio message received from the Baltic's.

KEATING CROSS ROAD BECOMES PRIMARY ONE

Government Will Control Circular Route by Assuming Responsibility of Maintenance

IMPROVEMENT IS FORECAST

By order-in-council the Keating Crossroad and its continuation, Benvenuto Avenue, has been created a primary highway. Under this ruling of the Government of the province the highway running from the East Saanich Road and crossing the West Saanich Road will be maintained by the province, thus relieving the municipality of Saanich.

Under this arrangement there will be a duplicate highway under the Provincial Government control leading to and from the garden of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart, which is such a tremendous attraction in the Summer months. The putting of the Keating Crossroad into first-class condition is evidently the intention of the Department of Public Works.

When this is done there will be the alternative route to the gardens from Royal Oak, where the East and the West Saanich Roads converge along either until the terminus of Benvenuto Avenue on the West Road is reached.

The combined distance from the East Saanich Road along the Keating Crossroad and Benvenuto Avenue to "Benvenuto" is three and a half miles. Of this 7,000 feet, or about one mile and a third, is represented in the paved section of Benvenuto Avenue.

What Did Prince Say? Is Question Now Most Asked

LONDON, Dec. 6.—The Prince of Wales has made peace, and the boy who was suspended from Leyton High School by the headmaster for having asked His Highness for his autograph will go back to school.

The Prince wrote a letter to Mr. Lawrence Gill, the schoolboy's father, which Mr. Gill said contained some good advice upon which he acted.

Mr. Gill stated the letter was marked private and he therefore declined to allow its publication.

Now, what did the Prince say? is being asked widely in England today.

PREMIER LAYS LOW ON TOPIC OF MINISTERS

No Reason to Expect Any Announcement to Be Made for Some Time He Tells Newspaper Men

NOTHING TO SAY ON UNEMPLOYED

OTTAWA, Dec. 6.—There is no reason to expect any immediate announcement with respect to cabinet appointments, Premier Mackenzie King told newspaper representatives here this evening. The Prime Minister, who returned here this morning from a speaking engagement at London, Ontario, presided at a Cabinet meeting this afternoon. He had nothing to say, however, at its conclusion.

PREMIER NONCOMMITTAL

Mr. King was asked if the meeting had taken up representations which were made to him in regard to the unemployment situation. He had no statement make in reply to the question. He was noncommittal also when asked about the date of the opening of Parliament.

It would be about the same time as last year, he said. Last year Parliament opened on February 7. As the opening usually takes place on a Thursday, it is not improbable that February 6 will be chosen for the day on which Parliament will convene this year.

The work of preparation for the session is going ahead. Indications are that the session will be a fairly strenuous one, particularly in view of the rumors that an election may take place in 1930.

Tidal Wave Death Toll Was Heavy

MONTREAL, Dec. 6.—The latest estimate of the recent tidal wave disaster in Newfoundland shows that twenty-seven persons lost their lives, nine women, three men and children. The foregoing report was made by Colonel E. M. Renouf, Newfoundland representative in Montreal, who received a message from Premier Sir Richard Squires, of Newfoundland. The Premier's message follows:

"Within an area of sixty miles from the coast line are affected by the recent tidal wave disaster. Total loss of life, twenty-seven persons, nine women, three men and fifteen children. Estimated damage, $1,000,000."

FISHERIES PARLEY PROVES SUCCESSFUL

Commissioner of Fisheries Calls Into Conference Leaders of Industry to Hear Views on Effect of Recent Privy Council Judgment—Hon. S. L. Howe Tells Operators' Limitations

Mr. J. P. Babcock Suggests Measure to Save Salmon

THE conference called by Hon. S. L. Howe, Commissioner of Fisheries for the province, for the purpose of discussing with all those engaged in any manner in the industry the best methods of fostering that line of business and making it contribute to the general prosperity of the province, turned out a great success. Mr. Howe, after the close of the meeting yesterday afternoon, expressed himself as exceedingly well pleased with the frank expression of opinion by the actual fishermen engaged in the industry, as well as by the interests carrying on enterprises connected with it.

LOCAL FIRM OBJECTS TO LOWER DUTY

Victoria Brass & Iron Works Protests Against Less Duty on Fish Meal Machines

MAY HAVE EFFECT ON NEW INDUSTRY

OTTAWA, Dec. 6.—Before the Advisory Tariff Board today a protest was filed by the Victoria Brass & Iron Works against any reduction in duties on machinery for the manufacture of fish meal, which was sought by Connor Bros., of Saint John, N.B., who asked that the present general duty of 27½ per cent general tariff be reduced to 12½ per cent and the British preference to 5 and intermediate to 7½ per cent.

Connor Bros. also sought the removal of the clause "of a class or kind not made in Canada," apparently to bring in machinery from Germany. They claimed the machinery for this purpose, made on the Pacific Coast, either in Canada or the United States, was not suitable for the production of fish meal on the Atlantic.

On the Pacific Coast raw fish is used.

Canadian Westinghouse Company, transformers, $55,000.
English Electric Company, waterwheel, $70,000, and generator, $80,000.

The company will spend about $300,000 in addition in installation of the above equipment, the whole of the concrete supports for the pipeline of nearly two miles in length being done by its staff, and also the electrical work necessary at the powerhouse for placing the above equipment in service for the Fall of 1930.

Apart from the sum of $370,000 spent on rebuilding the flume, it is estimated that the fourth unit will cost upwards of $850,000 when completed.

Fisheries Parley Proves Successful

Mr. Neill said that he did not want something brought up later when they were not present.

"I don't know what you are talking about," said Mr. Howe.

PRINCE RUPERT MESSAGE

The Prince Rupert branch of the Canadian Fisheries Association found it impossible to have any representative present, but the secretary, Mr. John Dyball, wrote expressing regret and referred to the importance of doing something to maintain the quality of the salmon pack.

Mr. Ainslie Helmecken of this city, raised the point of extending the market for fish meal produced on the West Coast among the breeders of cattle, where it had been found to be a most nourishing article of diet.

EXPERIMENTS PROCEED

The Commissioner of Fisheries brought forth hearty applause when he stated that he was himself experimenting in a very practical way in this line. He was having two calves of similar age and quality fed, one with the introduction of fish meal, and the other without it.

Mr. Helmecken advised the appointment of someone to endeavor to introduce this feed among the dairymen and farmers of the province.

HALIBUT FISHERY

Mr. J. P. Babcock, dealing with the subject of the halibut fishing industry and its endangered position, owing to depletion, said that the halibut commission had advocated the creation of a closed area for the breeding of halibut north of Queen Charlotte Islands. This had first been advocated by the fishermen themselves. There had been requests made from all sources for Mr. Babcock offered an interesting item of information on this subject of halibut, when he said that there was a difference of halibut which differed in their habits, just as there were races of sockeye salmon. The experiments showed that the halibut in Hecate Straits had over a course of years moved but very little from their positions. In the Gulf of Alaska it had been found that they migrated in instances for 700 or 800 miles.

As a means of eliminating the difficulty met with the Indians in many parts of the province depleting the increase in the salmon breeding, owing to their taking the fish from the spawning grounds, Mr. Babcock advocated canning the fish for distribution among the Indians as a substitute food for them. The Indians would prefer them, but they must have plenty of oil.

Hon. S. F. Tolmie thought that Hon. S. L. Howe should be proud in having such a representative gathering of the fishing interests of British Columbia altogether.

"You have in your minister, Hon. Mr. Howe, a man who, as soon as he takes over the responsibilities of an office, will devote the best of his time to co-operation with the officials of his department, and with those actively engaged in the fishing industry in an effort to improve conditions."

HEAVY INVESTMENT

"The fishing interests of British Columbia are very valuable indeed, there being, as I understand it, an investment in this province of the order of something between thirty and forty millions of dollars. Many of the old pioneers have been engaged in this industry practically the whole of their lives. We have in some cases the second generation actively engaged, and even the third generation is beginning to enter the industry. I am sure you are all agreed that an industry which is as valuable as this, which represents no less than one per cent. of the whole fish production of Canada, in the province of British Columbia, that conservation is one of the ends that must be kept in sight at this stage of the game, but rather that we should adopt a policy which will be careful to conserve this great industry for the generations to come, and at the same time increase it as much as we can. I am sure you are all in accord with that view."

"Now we have our many other resources. We have a big province here, a province well equipped with four or five necessary resources to make a great country. We have in addition many other attractions, which will bring revenue to this great province. Located as we are in the northern section of the American continent, we have been looking to the future development of commerce throughout the world. We have our store on the main street, facing the Pacific Ocean. Our ports are open, the water is deep, and we have cheap water transportation; and located in these Pacific waters are two-thirds of the world's population at the present time."

"By guarding our resources carefully and inflicting as few restrictions as possible on those engaged in the work, we can carry on and increase our returns from the various industries in this province, and have it as good or a better place than we found it when we came to this country, or were raised in this country."

"We have appointed Mr. Howe to the position of commissioner of fisheries. His business is to take care of you, to co-operate with you in every possible way, and I want to say that he was particularly regard we are anxious to co-operate with you."

"We are anxious to lead you down a few restrictions as possible. We believe in establishing a stable industry in this industry, but in every other.

"We welcome you to this meeting and to the City of Victoria, and I want to say that the name of Mr. A. P. Pound, deputy minister of fisheries, Ottawa, I met Mr. Pound when I was in Ottawa and I found him very deeply interested in the fisheries here, and he was anxious to co-operate willingly in an endeavor to help to solve our problems as they came before him from time to time."

MINISTER'S WELCOME

In the course of his address Hon. S. L. Howe said: "When talking over the Department of Fisheries and going into the intricacies of it, trying to understand the troubles which you have had for many years, I found as commissioner it was necessary for me to learn more about fish and the fishing industry, and in addition to what I could find out by personal contact, I made a trip around the Province of British Columbia this summer and saw nearly all the industry which met the people engaged in it. I met the business men and those employed in the industry, as well as those who have capital invested, and it occurred to me that there was only one thing to do and that was to invite you all here together, in all your different and various capacities, with all your different problems, and face this Government which must legislate, that we should get the fullest information possible in connection with that."

"At one time the Dominion Government had control, and probably yet have an idea that they have control of the industry in Canada. We find by the decision of the Privy Council that that right is vested in the Province of British Columbia and we are now a people who are given license to Canada. I found in this question with the various interests that there was a difference of opinion amongst yourselves, that you are not all of one opinion, or of one mind."

"I think there will be some misunderstanding as to the power conferred on this province by this ruling of the Privy Council. That does not extend our powers from what they were before. We are of the opinion that the regulations are governed by the British North America Act. We are limited in our taxation area. The Provincial Government is only given power to license and control canneries and tax their products, but is not empowered to regulate fishing."

"The must not forget the thousands of people who make their living in this industry. It is a large problem and it is one with which you are deeply concerned. In the industry, it is one of the Government is deeply concerned in, and we shall, as an outcome of this meeting, be able to bring about a regulation which will benefit the fishing industry."

LARGE ATTENDANCE

Mr. Howe presided over the gathering and, as he announced in his opening remarks, the fullest attendance was allowed to all to express their opinions. There were present, in addition to Mr. J. P. Babcock, deputy commissioner of fisheries, and Mr. C. P. Hickman, the provincial inspector of fisheries, Mr. W. A. Found, deputy minister of fisheries at Ottawa, Mr. J. C. MacDonald, chief inspector under the Dominion department; Mr. E. G. Taylor, inspector for this district for the Dominion; Mr. J. C. MacDonald, provincial compiler for the province; Mr. W. E. Ditchburn, commissioner of the Indian department, and Mr. D. B. Plunkett, M.P., and many other officials in the subject of the fisheries.

The other members of the Government, the province were present throughout a large part of the sittings, while in addition there were about seventy-five present representing in various ways the interest concerned.

PROVINCIAL CONTROL

Mr. R. C. Goose, of the B.C. Packers, expressed the opinion that the fishing industry would benefit greatly by provincial control. He expressed his satisfaction from the standpoint of the packers in the Provincial Government, favoring the opening of the herring season on October 15.

He was in favor of giving the chief inspector the power to control closed areas.

In protesting against the practice of Indians in taking salmon from spawning grounds, Mr. Goose said the sockeye taken this year would be less than in any previous year. He said that the sockeye taken this year would be less than in any previous year. He said that the sockeye taken this year would be less than in any previous year.

MORE DARING RESCUES ARE MADE AT SEA

aid of the Provincial Government in securing the abolition of the weekly closed season, substituting therefor a correspondingly later date for the opening of the season.

SUMMARY OF VIEWS

The representations of the Northern British Columbia Salmon Fishermen's Protective Association was put forward by Mr. W. E. Maiden. These requests were summarized as follows:

1. That licenses be granted to all British subjects desiring to fish in the open sea, thus preventing a monopoly and curtailment of markets.
2. That no areas for the processing of fish should be established to suit canners, to insist on a while labor in reduction plants, and to prevent refuse escaping from such plants.
3. That no new regulations be passed without fishermen being notified in advance.
4. That the West Coast Fishermen's Association urged the Government to stop logging on salmon streams to conserve their water, to reforest streams already denuded, to insist on a while labor in reduction plants, and to prevent refuse escaping from such plants.

Mr. A. W. Neill, M.P. for Comox-Alberni, strongly urged passage of the River Treaty, alluding to his being the only British Columbia member who had supported it in Parliament.

Mr. Neill said the recent Privy Council decision seemed to obstruct the programme designed to eliminate the Orientals from the fishing industry. He was advised, however, that the release of refuse on contiguous waters which was injurious to fish.

The Federal and Provincial Governments, Mr. Neill said, should get together and decide what streams should be used for fishing and what for power.

Mr. Babcock said the Government that waste from reduction plants did not seem to be injurious to fish, but appeared to offer them valuable food. Mr. Neill said the fishermen's news, a statement supported by Mr. R. McCoy, of the Fishermen's Protective Association.

Mr. Babcock suggested that Mr. J. P. Babcock, deputy commissioner of fisheries, be given control of a few salmon streams for experimental purposes.

A BREEZE

An interesting feature of the forenoon sitting was afforded by the presence of Mr. W. W. B. McInnes, of Vancouver, as counsel for the Japanese operator in the herring clause, the latter pointing out that without it the whole issue of finding work would be thrown on the employers.

The dissentients retorted this was exactly what they wanted.

Unemployed Deputation Was Heard

VANCOUVER, Dec. 6.—A delegation from the Vancouver Unemployed Workers' Association, headed by James Litterick and William McEwan, was in conference with Mayor H. W. Malkin at the City Hall this afternoon.

Although His Worship listened to their requests and discussed the problems he was not favorable to the request that a special meeting of the City Council be called to hear their complaints.

He explained the city has only one source of revenue, through the tax rate. A large amount of money has been expended by the city, he said, and there is no way to find extra funds to provide for the scheme of caring for the unemployed.

The mayor suggested that they consult Ald. W. C. Atherton, chairman of the relief committee, and Mr. George Ireland, relief officer, on the solution of their problem.

B.C. Lumber and Machine Plants Reach Agreement

OTTAWA, Dec. 6.—After a conference, Mr. W. B. Farris, representing the British Columbia Lumber and Logging Associations, announced that the application for a return in duty on lumbering and logging machinery would be withdrawn.

Mr. E. Davis, Vancouver, on behalf of the Pacific Coast Lumber and Logging Machinery Manufacturers, followed with the statement that his association would withdraw the application for an increase in the duty on such machinery.

Both sides expressed the opinion there would be a better understanding and more co-operation in the future.

Four Men Killed When Automobile Is Hit by Train

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Four men were killed today when an automobile, ownership of which was traced by the license to John Garski, of Otis, Indiana, skidded through the safety gates at Dempster Road crossing in Morton Grove, a north-west suburb, and crashed into a Chicago bound passenger train on the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific Railroad. The bodies were so mangled that identification was difficult.

FACED WITH DEFEAT

Faced with imminent defeat in the House of Commons at the hands of a majority of its own followers co-operating with the Liberals, the Government last night capitulated in one of the most important clauses in the Unemployment Bill dealing with the "genuinely seeking work" condition for the receipt of unemployment pay.

The dissentients retorted this was provision that the claimants must prove they had tried to find work.

Mr. Hon. Margaret Bondfield and Sir William Jowitt defended the clause, the latter pointing out that without it the whole issue of finding work would be thrown on the employers.

The dissentients retorted this was exactly what they wanted.

Mr. Davies of the Vancouver Engineering Works, spoke very highly of the Victoria concern and their product. Fish meal, he said, was a growing industry, and his firm was considering going into the manufacture of the necessary machines if the duty was not reduced.

BOARD AGREES TO SUPPORT IDEA

Will Co-Operate in Deputation on White Canada Policy to Government

The Advisory Board of the Farmers' Institutes of the province concluded its work yesterday. Before doing so the question of the status of the institutes was taken up with the Deputy Minister of Agriculture, and arrangements made for the presentation of the resolutions approved by the board before the committee on agriculture of the Legislature.

WHITE CANADA
Mr. C. E. Hope, on behalf of the White Canada Association, met the Advisory Board yesterday, and made a request that members be appointed delegates to accompany the representatives of the association to view the executive council of the province next Tuesday. With the agreement of the board, the chairman appointed Messrs. A. B. Smith and H. Bose as the delegates from the Farmers' Institute Advisory Board.

Recommendations regarding changes in the issuing of fire permits were discussed fully. It was decided to recommend the seeding of certain burned lands as an enterprise which might be undertaken by the forest branch. In this connection the seeding of the roadsides following the burning over of them was recommended to be taken up either by the forest branch, or by the Department of Public Works.

WEED CONTROL
A request will be made for obtaining sodium chlorate at wholesale prices by the farmers for the purpose of weed destruction. A resolution favoring laboratory work being undertaken with reference to diseases in poultry, was laid over, after consultation with the Deputy Minister of Agriculture.

The latter gave the information that the department, through Premier Tolmie, was taking this matter up with Ottawa, requesting that there should be a clearing-up of the confusion that existed as to where action lay in the matter as between the provincial and the Dominion authorities.

The requests for action came from the Fraser Valley district, and also from the Kootenay district. The latter Association with the B.C. Poultry Association also making a request.

There were a number of other resolutions dealing with lesser matters such as amendments to the Milk Act, and as to the Fall Fair regulations. These were all in turn referred to the proper authorities in the matter.

Highway Link On Ferry Route Is Transferred

The main road to Steveston, on the Lower Mainland, which runs through Richmond, has been constituted a secondary highway by the Department of Public Works. This has been approved by Order-in-Council. This road has its relation to the traffic on Vancouver Island in view of the fact that it constitutes an improved highway connecting up with the ferry service which plies between Steveston and Sidney, making a direct route between the Mainland and Victoria, and the rest of the Island in Summer.

USE-YOUR-VOTE DRIVE ASSISTS NIGHT PROWLER

Trustee G. A. A. Hebden's Residence Entered While He Is Directing Gyro Campaign for Civic Poll

ROOMS IN HOUSE ARE RANSACKED

While School Trustee G. A. A. Hebden, chairman of the Victoria Gyro Club's energetic "Use-Your-Vote" campaign, was in the city last night about 10 o'clock directing arrangements for the gyro's big drive, a prowling robber or robbers entered his home at 1773 Lillian Road, in darkness, and, after apparently trying the doors, forced one of the front bedroom windows, facing on the verandah, and gained entrance to the premises.

The first indication which Trustee and Mrs. Hebden had of the robbery was when they reached their residence shortly before 11 o'clock and found the doors of a kitchen cabinet open and some of the contents strewn upon the floor.

One of the bedrooms had been more thoroughly ransacked, the bureau drawers having been searched and clothing and other articles thrown on the floor, evidently in disgust, by the burglars who were disappointed at not finding money or jewelry there.

Trustee Hebden believes that the prowlers were not in the house a long time, but were probably frightened away by the dog, which was in the home when the place was entered.

Trustee Hebden notified the city police immediately and the detectives are working on the case.

Saskatchewan Breeder Secures Championships in Clydesdale Classes in Keen Contest

ONTARIO FARMER GATHERS FIRST

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Taking the grand championship of the breed for both mares and stallions, Western Canada yesterday swept through the Clydesdale horse classes at the International Livestock Exposition to score a complete triumph in the last competition on the schedule in which it is heavily entered.

Mr. James A. Johnstone, the Yellowknife, Sask., breeder, brought Canada's colors to the front when his two-year-old Sonny Boy, after proving far the best of the two-year-old stallions of the Clydesdale breeds, went on to take the title of junior champion of the breed, and was then pitted against Borslands Best, an aged stallion, owned by R. A. Jones & Son, of Bangor, Wis., for the grand championship. Sonny Boy was adjudged the better animal of the two and took the grand championship.

Lady Trojan Mahomet, also owned by Mr. Johnstone, won the title of grand champion mare, taking the first place in the three-year-old mare class and then following the performance by capturing the senior mare championships.

Mr. Charles J. Shore, Glenworth, Ont., won ribbons for the champion Cotswold breeding ram and for reserve champion ewe, as well as three first prize ribbons and four other minor awards.

Aircraft Corporation Is Applying for Lease of Ground at Sea Island Airport

According to advices received here from Vancouver the Yarrow Aircraft Corporation, Limited, operating land planes at present from the temporary airport on Lulu Island and with a seaplane hangar at the foot of Broughton Street, Vancouver, is applying to the Vancouver City Council for the privilege of leasing an area of ground at the permanent airport on Sea Island, for the development of which a by-law for $300,000 will be voted on at the Vancouver City elections on December 11.

In the event of the by-law passing the Yarrow company plans to centralize its activities on Sea Island and wants sufficient property on which to put up warranted facilities, with a view to expansion as the industry grows.

The president of the company, Mr. N. Yarrows, in a letter to the mayor of Vancouver, expressed the hope that the taxpayers will pass the by-law, so that Greater Vancouver may have an airport in keeping with her importance as a city.

MAYOR SPEAKS ON SYSTEM OF CIVIC FINANCE

His Worship Tells Real Estate Board Disadvantages of "Pay as You Go" Policy

STRESSES CAPITAL EXPENDITURE PLAN

Borrowing by way of a loan and the disadvantages of the "pay-as-you-go plan" formed the subject of an address given yesterday to the Real Estate Board of Victoria by Mayor Herbert Anson.

His Worship, who was greeted with prolonged and enthusiastic applause, said that the immediate payment system was a mythical policy which had been caused in past years by the spending, on the part of the city of Victoria, moneys which it did not possess, with no provision made for the deficits arising from bad debts. As a result of this state of affairs, the City Council, sunk in an avenue of despondency, had felt that the only way to avoid a repetition of it was to postpone payment until it was in a position to pay from revenue only.

"Unless we make some capital expenditure in the near future," continued Mayor Anson, "we shall be forced back to the village state within the next few years. So far, we have only pecked at the job and the time has arrived when improvements must be paid for by means of a bond issue, spread out over 80 per cent of the life of the work."

THE "DARDANELLES"

Speaking of the situation regarding the "Dardanelles," Mayor Anson said that he did not intend to rest until these had been widened by seventeen feet on either side of the street. There were cases where this would be of material benefit to the owner of property, since it would allow him to park his car in front of his house. "There are other cases," continued His Worship, "where the front of the house will be cut into, and, in these instances, the owner has got to be properly treated. The widening of this street is not going to be unduly expensive, but I would like to emphasize the fact that we are not sitting here, are not going to benefit by the alteration as much as future generations and it is only fair to expect them to pay their quota of the price."

WATER DISTRIBUTION

In touching on the water distribution system, His Worship pointed out that, if the immediate payment policy was applied in this case, it would be distinctly unfair to present residents in the city, who would be asked to provide for future use, besides liquidating the debt. "It is no use harping on the debt," he said, "but the ability of setting aside a yearly sum for capital expenditure," went on the Mayor. "This cannot be done without increasing the mill rate. The raising of the sinking surplus fund cannot go on indefinitely. One more year like last year, and this will be seriously depleted."

His Worship spoke of the criticisms, leveled at the City Council, which demanded that various improvements be made forthwith, and, two or three days later, were followed by further criticisms, emanating from the same sources, which called for a reduction in the mill rate.

INCREASED REVENUE OFFSET

"Next year," he continued, "we shall get $25,000 more revenue, owing to increased building permits. This will be offset, however, by the reduction on land sales. With regard to the development of the Willows grounds, I believe that it may be possible to put the skating rink into one of the new buildings there."

"As you know, the municipal dollar is divided as follows, 44 cents goes to debt charge; 17.5 cents, an amount which is ridiculously large, goes to education; 3.5 cents to the police; 1 cent to the library; 2.5 cents to hospitals and health; 3 cents to local improvement frontage taxes, and the remaining 30.7 cents is left for fire department, street lighting, bridges and sidewalks, garbage disposition, waterworks and charities and grants."

NEARLY INTOLERABLE

Mr. David Leeming declared that, where there was urgency, he had no criticism to advance against capital expenditure, but he was not in favor of the system of municipal taxation throughout the province, which amounted to a practical policy of confiscation. "We should not increase the forty-one mill rate, whatever happens," declared Mr. Leeming, "since it is already a nearly intolerable as it could well be."

Mr. R. H. B. Ker proposed a vote of thanks to the Mayor, which was seconded by Mr. James Forman.

Sidney Rector at St. Mark's Church

The following services will be held at St. Mark's Church, Cloverdale, tomorrow: Holy Communion at 8 o'clock, Matins and sermon at 11, and Evensong at 7 o'clock. Rev. T. M. Hughes, rector of Sidney Parish Church, will conduct the morning service, and at Evensong, Rev. O. L. Jull, the vicar, will preach upon the Bible, tomorrow being recognized as Bible Sunday. The sacrament of Baptism will be administered in the church at 3 o'clock.

Assize Courtroom

Work which has been done in the Assize Court will, it is expected, improve the acoustic properties of the room. As a result of complaints from the bench as to the difficulty of hearing all proceedings, copper wires have been strung from wall to wall across the room, midway between the floor and the ceiling, and additional curtains have been hung at corners and doorways, as a means of preventing reflection of sound, waves from the walls and ceiling.

Senate Rejects One of Members Making Vacancy

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Excluding Senator-elect William S. Vare, of Pennsylvania, from membership, the Senate today left the seat vacant by then refusing to declare his Democratic opponent in the 1926 election, Mr. William B. Wilson, elected.

ZONING BY-LAW IS CRITICIZED

Mr. David Leeming Tells Mayor Anson Views of Victoria Real Estate Board

BY-LAW DESCRIBED AS PURE NONSENSE

At yesterday's regular luncheon meeting of the Real Estate Board of Victoria, held in the private dining-room of David Spencer, Limited, Mr. David Leeming told Mayor Herbert Anson, regarding the Zoning By-Law. "The argument has been advanced," said Mr. Leeming, "that this board did not take the opportunity to make representations to the City Council at the proper time, but were distinctly given to understand that there was to be a special zoning board to consider any recommendations that we might make." Describing the by-law in its present form, as "a piece of ineffectual nonsense," Mr. Leeming pointed out the case of the Gorge Road as a glaring example. A section of this thoroughfare, he pointed out, was zoned for light industries on the north side of the road and for first class residences on the other. "If we are unable to get a different view of the City Council," Leeming stated, "I, personally, am going to work for its abolition. I am in favor of a zoning by-law, but I am still more strongly in favor of its being drawn up and handled intelligently."

Mr. A. R. Wolfenden pointed out that Victoria had now passed its fiftieth birthday anniversary as a city, and he gave it as his opinion that the time was now passed when it would be possible to remodel other than undeveloped areas along zoning lines.

WILL LOG TIMBER EARLY NEXT SPRING

To have access to a stand of timber on the Gorge Road, the recently purchased from the city by Messrs. Fairbairn and Glerin, Limited, seven miles of logging railway are now being constructed, preliminary to the commencement of logging operations, which it is expected will start early next spring. The price secured by the city is said to be in excess of $300,000. In connection with the logging road construction, Mr. Glerin, of the firm, was in the city yesterday on his way to the scene of operations.

Relics of Earlier Races

WORKMEN excavating on a golf course site in the Humber Valley, near Toronto, unearthed a beaded copper axe head, a relic of the time when Indians roamed the country. Many relics have previously been found in this region, but this is the first copper article found. The photographs here show: Left, excavation in which the axe head was found, and, right, the beaded copper axe head which was found by two workmen.

REV. S. LUNDIE IS REMANDED TO WEDNESDAY

Charge of Manslaughter Is Laid as Sequel to Death of Louis Godtel While Hunting on Nov. 18

BAIL IS GRANTED ON TWO SURETIES

Rev. Samuel Lundie, of Sooke, is to appear before the provincial police court next Wednesday, for preliminary hearing of an action for manslaughter, based on the death of Louis Godtel when hunting on November 18. The charge having been laid, initial proceedings took place before Magistrate George Jay, Corporal Harvey appearing for the provincial police. Mr. Lundie was admitted to bail in the sum of $2,000, with Rev. H. P. S. Lutterell and Mr. Thomas Humphries as sureties.

Following the death of Louis Godtel, who was shot while hunting, his movement through thick brush being mistaken for that of a deer, a coroner's inquest was held and a verdict of accidental death was returned. The present case is said to be the first known here in which a charge of manslaughter has been laid after a similar coroner's verdict.

RHEUMATISM SO VICIOUS HIS CHEEKS AND MOUTH FELT CROOKED

Yet even this 40-year-old affliction yielded to T-R-C's

This is fact, not fiction. On file is the actual letter written by Mr. George Dubeau, who lives in Warren, Ontario. Mr. Dubeau doesn't hesitate to speak his mind about T-R-C's. "I have had rheumatic attacks for about 40 years (he writes) and was sometimes confined to bed for two or three weeks at a time. I had sharp stabbing pains all over my body, particularly in the elbows. My face was bad too. My cheeks and mouth were painful and felt crooked."

"However, for some years I haven't had much trouble with Rheumatism because I found out about T-R-C's, Templeton's Rheumatic Capsules. I haven't had any of the sharp, stabbing pains in many years."

Repeatedly, T-R-C's have given me speedy, safe relief from acute rheumatic suffering. And, when taken faithfully and correctly, T-R-C's have conquered even the most stubborn Rheumatism. Safe and swift also for Sciatica, Neuritis, Neuralgia and Lumbago. No harmful or habit-forming drugs. Reliable.

There is no mystery about the action of T-R-C's. They enter the blood stream. Go to the root of the trouble. Help your body throw off the poisons that are making your life miserable. Buy a box. Get back your normal health again. 50c and $1 at your dealer's.

REV. A. J. VINCENT IS WELCOMED

First Baptist Church Greets Pastor and Wife on Arrival Here

A large gathering of the members and friends of the First Baptist Church met Wednesday evening to extend a welcome to Rev. A. J. Vincent, the new pastor, and his wife. Under the convener'ship of Mrs. Beveridge the reception-room was suitably decorated with chrysanthemums in the autumn shades. After a brief devotional period during the leadership of Mrs. Spoford, who officiated as chairman during the evening, the address of welcome from the church was given by Deacon Angus Galbraith, who urged those present to give their whole-hearted support to the pastor and the church. The pastor replied briefly, expressing his pleasure in finding so many Maritime people in his congregation, and appealed to the members to build up a large Sunday evening service. Then followed a presentation to Mrs. Vincent of a beautiful bouquet of flowers by Miss Grace Middleton, a granddaughter of the late Alexander Clyde, in whose name the church was organized in 1876.

Words of greeting were given by F. A. McKinnon, of Douglas Street Baptist Church, and Rev. Henry Knox, of Emmanuel Baptist Church. Following the programme, refreshments were served by the ladies of the church under the convener'ship of Mrs. A. Galbraith. Others taking part on the programme were: Mrs. Messrs. Honeychurch, Knox and Jones; solo, Miss Thelma Lloyd; solo, Mrs. R. McIntosh; flute solo, Mr. Jones. Accompanist, Mr. Oliver Stout.

A pleasing part of the programme was the presentation of a bouquet of flowers to Mrs. Spoford, whose birthday was celebrated the same evening, and for more than fifty years has been a faithful worker in the church and has occupied many of its highest positions, as well as being an ardent worker in the prohibition interests and social service work.

large forces in Hankow to be sent against these Hupeh Province rebels, operating 800 miles from the sea. Traffic over the Peking-Hankow Railway was stopped and the Nationalists began gathering rolling stock into Hankow, apparently fearing that it would be seized either by rebellious Kuomintang troops which recently operated in that region, or by Government generals whose loyalty was doubted. Coolies were seized here and impressed into the Government military service.

Countering the Government's "silver bullet" campaign of buying rebel soldiers about Canton, Chang Fak-wai, commander of the mutinous "Ironclad division," was reported to have sent agents into the city to arouse jinx pullers, taxi-cab drivers and others to declare a strike coincident with the rebel assault against Canton.

The strike was said to have been agreed to, and in consequence martial law was more strictly enforced. Meanwhile, the "Ironclad division," and the Kuomintang rebels encamped a few miles from Canton, awaited an opportune time to move against the Nationalist forces drawn up to receive them.

Tariff Bill Is Started Upon in Senate of U.S.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Unable to get the Senate Finance Committee to raise the act on a tax reduction resolution, Chairman Smoot today a few moments after the opening of the Senate resumed consideration of the tariff bill. The Senate approved in rapid order and without discussion three finance committee amendments to raise the duties on the raw wool, if secured, on the skin, or sorted, to conform to previous action in agreeing to the House increase of 10 cents to 25 cents a pound in the rate on the clean content of raw wool.

North Atlantic Ocean's Bed Is Moved by Quake

HALIFAX, N.S., Dec. 6.—That the bed of the North Atlantic was shifted as a result of the earthquake of November 18, was indicated here today by reports of cables assigned to the task of repairing the submarine breaks. Soundings showed that the floor of the ocean had been moved, and that the sinking banks had shifted as a result of the disturbance. The breaks in cables connecting the Old World with the New had been discovered over an area 400 miles southward, and 300 miles northeast of Halifax. In some cases several breaks occurred in the same cable over a distance of 100 miles.

Blizzards Delay Start of Fleet of Mail Planes

EDMONTON, Dec. 6.—Blinding blizzards, sweeping down from the barren lands and holding the entire North country in their grip on Friday, caused definite postponement of the initial flight of the air mail fleet of three aeroplanes from Edmonton to Akivak for at least twenty-four hours.

Word received in the city at 3 p.m. Friday from "Wop" Gray, who is at Fort McMurray, said that a blinding snowstorm was in progress there. The same storm is delaying the return of C. J. "Punch" Dickens from McMurray to Edmonton.

'TWELFTH NIGHT' IS FINE COMEDY

Superb Production Presented by Stratford Players at Royal Victoria Theatre Last Night

The fine flower of Shakespearean comedy bloomed again on the stage of the Royal Victoria Theatre last evening when the Stratford-Upon-Avon Festival Company played "Twelfth Night" for an audience which rocked to its wit.

Belonging to the second period of Shakespeare's dramatic genius, and to the second group of brilliant comedies which the bard produced during this period, "Twelfth Night" is a comedy of the most perfect of its kind, the perfection of dramatic effect which indicates the mature master of his art; but it has also the robust, bolder, full-blooded joyousness of one who is not too far from the "big boy" element which is in most men, and the love of romance which is inherent in most women.

The convivialities of Sir Toby Welch and Sir Andrew Aguecheek are balanced, with a magician's skill, by the lyrical graces of Olivia and the loveliness of Viola. In his little show of the end of the play he sums up the happy intention which the author seemed to have in mind when he wrote the comedy.

"A great while ago the world began, with hey, ho, the wind and rain, the world's full of folk, and some are good, and some are bad, and we'll strive to please you every way."

Superb results seem inevitably to follow the drawing for parts in the Stratford company's productions. Had Shakespeare personally selected a dispenser for the full-bodied wit of this comedy he could certainly have found no finer choice than Roy Ryford for the role of Sir Toby Welch, and a jovial, deep-stomached rubicund of face, convivial of manner and uproarious of laughter, he gave the mellow flavor of old rum, with a still element of his upsy quality, to the play, and his unsteady footstep and joyously wind-milling gestures were followed with uproarious delight by the audience.

A pale shadow of a boon companion was Kenneth Wickstead's Sir Andrew Aguecheek, a foil which gave importance to itself. Another master comedian was Wilfred Walter as the sabbie giant Malvolio, impressively sour, superior and disdainful, and ultimately a very absurdity of a popinjay in his vanity. These were brilliant bits of comedy, the part of the clown, to whom fall some of Shakespeare's wittiest lines, and (happily) some of Shakespeare's most treasured songs, was in the adept hands of George Hayes. After hearing his fine singing voice, which always moved the audience to long applause, it was easy to understand why he was selected for the role.

Although in one sense "Twelfth Night" is more a man's than a woman's play, the three feminine parts are all worthy of a fine artist's talent. Miss Joyce Bland made

The Rhyming Optimist

By Aileen Michalski

WHY NOT?
Some hours may be dismal
And barren of delight,
Some moods may bring abysmal
Depths of night.
Nor is this burden only
A cross of yours or mine,
To all come seasons lonely
When no stars shine.
Ah, who can buy with sighing
A share of light or song?
Why vex the day with crying
For plans gone wrong?
And why keep for tomorrow
One thought of such alloy?
Why not forget each sorrow
And cling to joy?

'WOODHOLM' WILL CLOSE TO PUBLIC

Model Residence at Uplands Will Be Available for Inspection Only One More Day

"Woodholm," the model lumber home in the Uplands, will close to the public, during which time it has drawn hundreds to wonder and admire, both its beauty and its convenience. Built by the Cameron Lumber Company in conjunction with other firms, the purpose for this venture has been to educate the public to an entirely new form of house construction. The plans were the pick of a number submitted by the West Coast Lumbermen's Association, drawn up by Gardner J. Gwynn, of Seattle. The location of this model house could not have been chosen more happily. Standing at the corner of Upper Terrace Road, it commands a beautiful outlook across the water, and is so placed as to include the possibility of future builders overlooking it. The position is one easily reached from the heart of the city, being but ten minutes' drive out, and barely a hundred yards from the terminus of the car line.

On this, the last day of its exhibition, the trip more than pays anyone who has not already visited it.

Mr. Dilworth will be assisted by Mrs. D. Thomas, pianist; Miss Thelma Johns, soprano; Mr. Edward Parsons, organist; Dr. T. H. Johns, basso; also a quartette comprised of the Messrs. Johns and Messrs. Dorothy Parsons and Messrs. Nelson Hicks and Dr. Johns.

Activities continued until 8 o'clock, when a concert was held which consisted of vocal solos by Mrs. Petrie, Mrs. Fisher and Maldwyn Humphries; instrumental duets by C. Medley and L. RED CROSS SEALS SELLING READILY

Every Buyer Directly Helps in the Fight Being Made Against Tuberculosis

The sale of the Christmas seals which the Kiwanis Club is directing locally this year, is meeting with splendid co-operation on the part of all classes of citizens. By buying these seals, everyone is contributing directly to the campaign being steadily waged against the ravages of tuberculosis. The whole-hearted support and practical sympathy of everyone in the community is greatly to be desired, and would be much appreciated if realized. The amount collected in 1928 through the sale of seals was $3,836.59, which was allocated as follows: Jubilee Hospital, $1,000; St. Joseph's Hospital, $1,000; Victorian Order of Nurses, $362.58; Queen Alexandra Solarium, $250; Canadian Tuberculosis Society, Ottawa, $383.65; Tranquille Tuberculosis Society, $461.04; postage and printing, $379.32.

The Christmas seal, like many Canadians, is proud of its family tree. It traces its ancestry back to Denmark, where it came into being through the inspiration of a postal clerk, Einar Holbeil. The idea crossed the ocean and was first employed in the United States, coming later to Canada. In 1928, 44,000,000 seals were distributed in Canada, and $144,000 was procured for local committees. This year the effort is to sell 55,000,000 and to raise $250,000.

The seals that are sold for one cent each have made possible an organized campaign against tuberculosis. They stand for something more, for they are truly health seals, since whatever helps to prevent tuberculosis helps to make for health. With the money raised by the sale of seals there have been provided hundreds of sanatoria where those ill with the disease may secure care; premises where children who have been exposed to the disease may be built up to resist the attack; clinics where examination and advice are freely given; and to thousands of people has been given the optimistic message that tuberculosis is a curable disease.

Bridgeover: Yes, every man should marry. Now, what possible excuse have you for being single? Bachelor: I was born that way.

"Motor cars make us lazy," said the lecturer.

"Not if we're pedestrians," added the student.

Tuberculosis Diagnostic Clinics

(Health Service of the Canadian Medical Association)

A consideration of the problems growing out of tuberculosis is definitely encouraging and should be sufficient stimulus for greater effort. Encouragement comes from the fact that while this disease continues to take a heavy toll of human lives—over 7,800 in Canada during 1928—it has been conquered to a considerable extent, and year by year its ravages are being lessened. A resolve to persevere, and determination to make a greater effort have come as the result of seeing that past and present efforts have been and are effective, and that the only limit to their effectiveness has been the extent to which the work done has been limited. While it is true that many factors have indirectly contributed to the reduction which has occurred in tuberculosis, it is equally true that the greater reduction has been taken place, one might almost say in direct proportion to the extent of the anti-tuberculosis campaign.

More and more attention is being focused on the need for early diagnosis. In order to insure a fair chance for recovery, treatment must be started in the early stages of the disease. In order to control and prevent the spread of tuberculosis, it is necessary that cases be recognized early and that parents be educated and trained so that they will not pass on the infection to others. To attain these two desirable aims, it is necessary that early diagnosis be made. This fact has been recognized, and scattered across Canada are centres where examinations are made and the disease detected in its early stages. This is desirable not only for the case, but for the public; because it means control of the spread of the disease and public protection. These diagnostic clinics are maintained by some Provincial Governments and by the tuberculosis sanatoria. Like everything else of that type, the clinics cost money to equip and maintain. A seasonable opportunity to assist the sanatoria in this work is provided through the Christmas seal sale.

Questions, concerning health, addressed to the Canadian Medical Association, 184 College Street, Toronto, will be answered personally by letter.

Fashion Fancies

By Marie Belmont

Sartorial artists have solved the problem of the eternal triangle. In the modern conception of the word it now carries a pleasant connotation, for the triangle has been given a prominent place in the new silhouette. Should you seek further proof of this fashion statement, a glance at the sketch above will allay all doubts.

The triangular effect is carried out from the flowing capelet, through the line of the set-on-flounce, and completed in the hemline. Of course, it was a variant who selected black broadcloth and Persian lamb to present this line of thought, for there is nothing smarter just now.

St. John's Sale of Work Nets Sum of $600

A Christmas sale of work, under the caption "Ye Olde Fashioned Fair," was held in St. John's Schoolroom, in which every organization of the parish was represented, on Thursday and Friday, afternoon and evening. In keeping with the title of the fair, the ladies were arrayed in old-fashioned costumes, which added greatly to the general attractiveness of the sale. The schoolroom was most tastefully decorated for the occasion under the direction of Mrs. Chadwick.

Large festoons and evergreens rendered brilliant with hand-made poinsettias, and illuminated with long strings of varicolored electric lights, kindly loaned and arranged by Rev. M. W. J. Bruce, honorary assistant at St. John's Church, made a beautiful setting.

The fair was opened by Mrs. D. B. Ker, honorary president of the Ladies' Guild, who expressed her great pleasure at being present, and hoped that the affair would prove an unprecedented success. She was presented with a bouquet of flowers by Miss Myra Batchelor.

The fair was held under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild, but this year, instead of holding the annual Christmas sale, all the other organizations in the parish joined them in a united effort in the sale of the proposed new parish hall.

The following were in charge of the various stalls: Mrs. Forde, president of the Ladies' Guild, acting as general convenor; home cooking, Mrs. E. H. Walker, assisted by Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. C. Cobley; Mrs. W. Niblock also conducted a home-cooking stall; Miss Myra Batchelor, sold sachet powder; fancywork, Mrs. Rideout, assisted by Mrs. Pulton and Mrs. Tice; aprons, etc., Mrs. Swannell, assisted by Mrs. Townsend and Mrs. Nesbitt; old country goods, Mrs. Nesbitt; old country goods, Mrs. Nesbitt; old country goods, Mrs. Nesbitt.

Cabaret At Amphion Ballroom

Under the auspices of the Anti-Vivisection Society a most successful cabaret dance was held last evening at Amphion Hall. His Worship the Mayor and Mrs. Anson were among the guests, who numbered about two hundred. The guest table was arranged with mauve chrysanthemums and ferns, while bronze and yellow chrysanthemums were used on the smaller tables.

A special feature of the afternoon's performance was two vocal solos, rendered with artistic effect, by Mrs. D. W. Hastie, gold medalist at the recent B.C. Musical Festival. Misses Betty MacFie, Vera Malin, Mary McMillan and Katherine Weaver were seen to advantage in the graceful minuet, while Miss Doris Fleming, in a scarf dance and sailor's hornpipe, displayed considerable ability. Christmas Dinner to Be Served to Sailors

The December meeting of the Ladies' Guild for Sailors was held at the Victoria Connaught Seamen's Institute, Superior Street, on Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Thomson, president, in the chair. Mrs. Sayer, in the absence of Mrs. Gordon Smith, gave the financial report for the month. The ladies' committee which arranged the successful birthday tea and lighthouse shower, received the thanks of the president and members of the guild for their efforts. The children of the Girls' and Boys' Central Schools were thanked for the splendid collection of magazines they had contributed, and the Victoria Wood & Coal Company, for storage space afforded on this as well as other occasions.

It was mentioned that Major F. V. Longstaff will give an illustrated address for the Institute on a date to be determined later. Mrs. Sayer gave a most satisfactory account of some relief work in which she has been taking an active interest on behalf of the Institute. Mrs. Sayer was thanked for her successful efforts. Mrs. Fimmore reported for St. Joseph's Hospital and Vernon Villa, which she had visited regularly. Christmas cheer and gifts were arranged for by the hospital visiting committee, and Mrs. W. McManus was asked to take over the visiting of St. Joseph's and Vernon Villa. Mrs. Fimmore resigning owing to pressure of other duties. A knitted scarf was sent in by Mrs. Simons and received with thanks. Mrs. Kerr was welcomed upon her return from a year's sojourn in England, and two new members, Mrs. Overton and Mrs. Sutcliffe, were introduced by Madame Claudet. A consignment of Christmas stamps from the Kiwanis Club was accepted by the Guild.

According to annual custom, the British Sailors' Society will be responsible for Christmas dinner at the Institute, a letter from Mr. Barker having been received to this effect. Book shelves for the library for the special use of the apprentice boy seamen have lately been installed and were much admired by the members. Mrs. Thomson paid tribute to the late Mrs. Lamborn's interest in the boys, and asked that they be considered in future, as a legacy to the Institute from Mrs. Lamborn, and that special care be taken of them in her memory.

PORT ALBERNI, Dec. 6.—More than usual enthusiasm was manifested by the audience that attended the tea and musicale held at St. Alban's Hall on Wednesday afternoon, when the members of the Junior Red Cross Association were hosts for the benefit of the Queen Alexandra Solarium at Mill Bay.

A programme of song and dance was presented by a clever group of children, under the direction of Mrs. Alan Robertson, and the latter by the courtesy of Mrs. H. Patterson.

A special feature of the afternoon's performance was two vocal solos, rendered with artistic effect, by Mrs. D. W. Hastie, gold medalist at the recent B.C. Musical Festival. Misses Betty MacFie, Vera Malin, Mary McMillan and Katherine Weaver were seen to advantage in the graceful minuet, while Miss Doris Fleming, in a scarf dance and sailor's hornpipe, displayed considerable ability. Miss Jean Wright, in an individual fairy dance, attired in the traditional frock of frilled tulle and silver, with glittering garters, was compelled to give an encore.

Tea was served at small tables decorated with red crosses, the youthful hostesses acting as waitresses. An afternoon tea set, donated by Mrs. Henderson, of Port Alberni Lending Library, was drawn for and won by Edith Bellamy. Twenty-four dolls, dressed by the members of the organization, and a dozen scrapbooks were on display for inspection by the guests. These gifts, as well as the revenue raised by the performance, will be forwarded to the solarium, to provide Christmas cheer for the "shut-in" patients of that institution. Although this group of young workers has been in existence only a little over two months, the performance was the second social event undertaken by them.

Considerable credit is reflected on their organization, Mrs. Alan Robertson, who has guided the destiny of the club in all its ambitious undertakings, and who was also the sole manager of Wednesday's successful affair.

Imposing German Church

Cathedral, Limburg-Lahn, Germany

The seven spires and towers of this cathedral form a wonderful grouping and make a skyline more broken than any other great church in all of Europe. Flanking the north transept are two smaller towers, and the same arrangement is found just opposite on the south. Above rises the great central octagon, surmounted in turn by a dwindling octagonal spire, which lends a harmony to and is a keynote to the whole structure which is wonderfully effective.

Congregation to Focus Attention on the Holy Scriptures on Second Sunday in Advent

DEAN TO LECTURE ON "ENJOY BIBLE"

From the familiar phrase in the Prayer Book collect for the second Sunday in Advent, referring to the "Holy Scriptures written for our learning," this particular day in the Church's year is sometimes known as "Bible Sunday." The Bible and its use today will form the subject of sermons in Christ Church Cathedral tomorrow, and of a public lecture to be delivered by the dean in the Memorial Hall on Monday evening.

Tomorrow's services include celebrations of the Holy Communion at 8 and 9:30 o'clock, morning prayer and sermon by the dean at 11 a.m., and evening, with sermon by the dean, at 7:30. A service for the young, and for parents with children, will be conducted by Rev. E. W. P. Carter at 3 o'clock.

"How to Enjoy the Bible," is the title of the public lecture to be delivered by the dean, Very Rev. C. S. Quinton, on Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Memorial Hall. The lecture will deal with the literary appreciation of the Bible, the poetry of the Bible, the authorized version compared with the revised and Dr. Moffat's translations, etc. Does the "Higher Criticism" mar its enjoyment? Ought it to be read as other books are read? A collection will be received on behalf of the thank-offering fund of the British and Foreign Bible Society.

The continuation of the study of "The Ocean of Theosophy," will engage attention at a public meeting of the Victoria Independent Theosophical Society on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be held in the rooms of the society, in the Jones Building, Fort Street.

French Author Makes Home Among Alberta Cree Indians; Brings Up His Family There

One of the most remarkable men in the Canadian Northwest, and one of the most modest, is Georges Bugnet, better known in Quebec, perhaps, by his pen-name, "Henri Dostremon". M. Bugnet is the author of "Nipsey", which has recently been translated by Constance Davies Woodrow, of Toronto, and which is very shortly to be published for the first time in English under the Carrier imprint. During his twenty-five or thirty years' sojourn among the Crees of Northern Alberta, he seems to have acquired many of their very admirable qualities, among them the reserve so characteristic of all Indians and a marked antipathy to our modern civilization. Since it is with difficulty that he can be persuaded to talk of himself or his very noteworthy achievements, this biographical data has been gleaned from close personal friends and neighbors.

Born in France, he spent his early years in an atmosphere of culture and refinement, completing his education at the Sorbonne. His marked literary and oratorical gifts made him turn to journalism as a profession, and while still in his early twenties he became editor of a Paris journal.

Always, he had been a devout Catholic. Religious troubles that broke out in France troubled him exceedingly, so that he shook the dust of his native land from his feet and came to this new country where men might worship as they pleased. With him came his favorite sister, the latter entering a Canadian sisterhood in which she has remained to this day.

After a brief stay in the province of Quebec, he took up a quarter section in Alberta in a district now known as Rich Valley, sixty-five miles northwest of Edmonton, his only neighbors at that time being Crees and Metis.

For a while, he turned himself wholeheartedly into the laborious business of being a true pioneer. There is nothing of the quitter about Georges Bugnet. He has remained where he began, despite repeated setbacks and disasters owing to climatic conditions.

On this piece of land he built a cabin and began to establish a family. It is not certain whether M. Bugnet married just before leaving France or just after reaching Canada, but it is known that Madame Bugnet is a Parisian by birth and a woman of culture and unusual beauty.

Faith, hope and love were the sole assets of this courageous young couple. They had to toil early and late, shoulder to shoulder, to wrest a meagre living from that unbroken land. But the heavier responsibilities fell upon the shoulders of the young husband. When the children came, he had to be doctor and nurse, bringing each of his ten children safely into the world and caring for mother and babe while carrying on the work of the farm, medical assistance being an unobtainable luxury. In what little spare time he could snatch this extraordinary man taught himself English, with the sole aids of a dictionary, a Bible and a Shakespeare. His English pronunciation is remarkably good, but when the translator of his book corrected his pronunciation of "read" (past tense) he paused on the street, wide-eyed with astonishment. "But what a strange language is this English!" was his final comment, when she was unable to explain such a glaring inconsistency.

Till as he would, his little family remained desperately poor for a long time. Nevertheless, he could still find heart enough to think of his children's education. He began to teach the boys Latin and Greek, so soon as they were old enough. But, unlike their father, they did not take to these strange tongues "as ducks to water." They had been born with an ingrained love of the land that fore-ordained them to be true Canadian farmers. So their father wisely allowed fate to take its course.

When the elder boys were old enough to look after the farm, M. Bugnet set out for Edmonton, to look for a job that would help cover the cost of farming. Thus it was that he eventually became editor-in-chief of L'Union, the French newspaper of Alberta. He retained this position until quite recently, when the newspaper was sold. From Tuesday to Friday he would perform his editorial duties, the remainder of the week he would spend on his farm. The extraordinary thing is that he preferred to walk fifteen miles to and from the railway station rather than own a car, even when his financial condition would have allowed him to keep one. Nor has he allowed a telephone to be installed in his home; he disapproved strongly of such jangling disturbers of the family peace. Like the Indians with whom he is in sympathy, he resents the encroachment of civilization upon his simple, placid existence. Of our modern ways of living he has a poor opinion; our bachelor apartments are "stone cages," perhaps he is right.

It was about ten years ago that he turned his attention to writing books, his first, "Le Pin du Muskeg," receiving high praise for the beauty of its prose and theme. In 1921, "Lys de Sang," an adventure novel of the type of Haggard's "She," was published in Montreal, and the following year saw the publication of the first edition of "Nipsey," which was hailed by Wilson's as "the Maria Chapdelaine of the West." To his translator, the author wrote: "Bear in mind that my novel is not a fantasy of the James Oliver Curwood type; it portrays my country as it is, people and things. And indeed, Nipsey and her grandmother and the fine old Bonhomme actually lived and moved among the scenes of which he writes. All are now dead, the Bonhomme passing away only a few years ago."

Mrs. Woodrow tells of a conversation she once had with Mr. A. B. Watt, managing editor of The Edmonton Journal, who said to her: "You know, I was up in Nipsey's country many years ago and had tea at the home of the Bonhomme and I said to myself afterwards: 'What a great novel could be woven around that old character! Long afterwards, I discovered that that novel had actually been written. It was Georges Bugnet's 'Nipsey.'"

So anxious was M. Bugnet to preserve his identity that all these works were published under a pen-name, "Henri Dostremon." But fame seems determined to drag him from his burrow. In 1926, he came east to Quebec for the first time in twenty-five years as a spokesman for his western compatriots. He sat on Premier Taschereau's right and replied to the Premier's address. The following year, he was offered the same honor, but declined it. For the past three years, having suffered three successive crop disasters, he has turned his attention to the cultivation of plants and has met with enough success to cause the Deputy Minister of Agriculture to pay him a visit to see for himself a wide variety of plum and wild cherry trees.

Georges Bugnet is now fifty-two years of age.

Smelting Co. Is Curtailing Work From Water Lack

VANCOUVER, Dec. 6.—Owing to curtailment of power supply, the Britannia Mining & Smelting Company has laid off 250 men for two weeks. At the end of that period they will go back to work and another 250 will be laid off, the management informed them.

No effect on the employment market is expected from this circumstance, it is stated by Mr. J. H. McVety, superintendent of the Government Labor Bureau. The rotation of the layoffs will very largely offset the men to tide over the situation, he believes. Many of them came to the city for their "vacation," but they are not looking for work.

MAY BE COMMITTEE ON WAR PENSIONS

OTTAWA, Dec. 6.—The general impression here is that a special committee of the House of Commons will be formed when the House of Commons reconvenes to go into the whole question of soldiers' pensions. In several sessions, such committees have functioned, and it is expected that in view of the letter of Sir Arthur Currie to the Canadian Legion and other representations, Hon. Dr. King, Minister of Pensions, will take steps to have such a committee formed this session.

DIEGEL AND FARRELL REACH FINAL IN PRO GOLF

Record Crowd Expected to Watch McKechnie Cup Rugby This Afternoon

Powerful Local XV To Match Strength Against Vancouver

Victoria Squad at Peak of Condition for Big Test With Mainlanders—Game Will Start at 3 o'Clock—School Children to Be Guests

With one of the youngest and keenest squads ever to represent the Capital City in a McKechnie Cup match, Victoria's rep Rugby squad will hook up this afternoon, at the Royal Athletic Park at 3 o'clock, in what promises to be one of the most stoutly fought encounters in years. Captain Coventry was named yesterday as referee for the contest.

With the return of Victoria to the series, a great deal of interest has been aroused, and a record crowd is expected to be on hand when the teams line up for the conflict. All school children fifteen years and under will be admitted free to the ground, whether or not they are accompanied by their parents.

The English passing game has been making great strides in Victoria during the past three years, and with the advent of many experienced players to the senior ranks, the brand of ball is much higher and faster.

Victoria will be considerably out-weighted for today's game, but speed and youth is expected to offset this. In the pack the Mainlanders will have an advantage of ten pounds per man, while their back division will be heavier than Victoria's. The surplus avoirdupois in the latter division does not count for much, however.

MAINLANDERS EXPERIENCED

In experience Vancouver will also have the edge, many of its players having been members of rep teams for several years. This season, however, they will find pitted against them a trained-to-the-minute local fifteen, which has been working out for the past three weeks. Under Manager Bob Travis and his assistant, Phil Willis, former Varsity star and captain, several new players have been introduced and will be worked today for the first time. Considerable time has been spent coaching

The three-quarters, and the slogan to "run straight" has been drilled into every man in this division.

Victoria should be careful not to overdo it in the early play, and concentrate on reserving as much of their energy as possible for the last half stand. For several seasons the locals have gone out and fought tooth and nail from the first whistle, with the result that they have tired themselves out early and let Vancouver run roughshod over them later.

Today's game will be broadcast over CFCB.

The teams will take the field as follows:

JOHN D. HERTZ REFUSES OFFER

GREAT BATTLE IS EXPECTED IN CUP GAME

Thistles Out to Break Winning Streak of Navy Midweek Soccer Eleven—Kick-Off Set for 2:15

RIVAL SQUADS TO BE AT FULL STRENGTH

Can Saanich Thistles put an end to the winning streak of the Navy midweek soccer eleven? That's the question being asked today, the day of the Province Cup match between these clubs at Beacon Hill, commencing at 2:15 o'clock.

Both the lads from the suburban district and the sailors have been setting a fast pace in their respective loops, with the consequence that more than the usual interest is being taken in today's match. Both of the rival squads are fielding their strongest line-ups in hopes of clinching a victory and entering the next round of the Province Cup series. In the case of a tie, half an hour overtime will be played.

The teams will line up as follows:

Navy—Zanelli, E. Plummer, A. Whyte, H. Dykes, B. Robinson, Johnson, A. Plummer, D. Marr, J. Spriddell, T. Watt and Coader.

Saanich Thistles—Willoughby, Joe Crowe, Harper, Miller, Viggers, Jim Crowe, Phillips, F. Price, Easler, Barnwell and Cameron.

GAME CANCELED

Shortage of playing fields has necessitated the cancellation of the Juvenile League fixture between the Sons of England and Victoria West, of Division I. The match was scheduled for Beacon Hill, upper ground, but this ground is being used by the Junior League.

Other teams for today's games follow:

K. of C. will be chosen from the following: Randall, White, Sullivan, Kirchin, S. C. Collins, Monahan, B. Collins, T. O'Connell, V. Tierney, Brown, James, Shoultice and Schroeder. Players are asked to be at Central Park at 2:15 o'clock.

Young Stribling To Battle Giant Italian Tonight

PARIS, Dec. 6.—Whether Primo Camera is a real heavyweight championship prospect or merely a six-foot ten-inch 265-pound second-rater, may be determined when the giant Italian meets Young Stribling in a return ten-round bout here tomorrow.

The result of the bout in London on November 18, when the American heavyweight lost on a foul in the fourth round, after outpointing the Italian Mastodon throughout the ten minutes of fighting, was regarded as unsatisfactory, and the return match in Paris is expected to settle the question of Primo's actual worth.

JACK MATSON HIGH MAN IN CITY LEAGUE

Member of The Colonist Last Year's Champions, Has Average of 177.4 for Eighteen Games

A. MANSON HEADS COMMERCIAL LOOP

Spilling the pins over the alleys for an average of 177.4 for eighteen games, Jack Matson, a member of The Colonist, last year's City League champions, heads the league averages released yesterday. In the Commercial League Art Manson, of the Poodle Dog Cafe, and winner of last year's high average trophy, appears to be on the road to repeat this performance. Manson has an average of 176 for eighteen games.

Porter, of the Jokers, is second in the City League averages with 171. He is closely followed by A. Hawkins of The Colonist with 168. R. Wilson follows Manson in the Commercial League with an average of 171.7, while J. Lynch is next with 168.6.

The averages include all games played up to the end of last week. Following a protest, which was heard on the Arcade Alleys the Rues, Commercial League trundlers, were awarded two games in their league match with the Poodle Dog Cafe, while the scores of Art Manson, who rolled by himself, were thrown out. The Royal Arcanum were also awarded a game from James Island when it was discovered that the Islanders rolled an unregistered player.

The rules of the City and Commercial Leagues are that no bowler can roll games by himself but must roll with his team at the time and date set by the league.

St. Aidan's Retain Soccer Championship

Defending Champion Stops Walter Hagen By 3 and 2 Margin

Diegel Shoots Subpar Golf in Downing Keenest Rival—Johnny Farrell Advances by 6 and 5 Victory Over Al Watrous

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6.—Championship hopes of Walter Hagen crashed on the fairways of the Hillcrest Golf Club today, when the colorful wanderer bowed to the superior play of Leo Diegel, defending titleholder, 3 and 2.

In the semi-final of the National Professional Golfers' Association tournament, in seeking his sixth P.G.A. title Hagen saw his chances swept away before a rush of pars and birdies that streaked from the clubhouse a year ago eliminated him from the ranks of contenders. Diegel shot subpar golf; Hagen par.

While Diegel met and matched the challenge of Hagen, Farrell, Al Watrous, Detroit, by an overwhelming 6 and 5 victory, smiling the brink of defeat yesterday, when he came from behind to nose out Craig Wood, Bloomfield, N.J., and the thirty-seventh, but his conquest today was made without much exertion. As the result of his win he will face Diegel tomorrow in the thirty-six-hole final.

DIEGEL TAKES EARLY LEAD

Diegel toured the Hillcrest course in 68 in this morning's round to lead his opponent two up at the half-way point. Hagen shot a respectable par 71. Twice in the rounds "breaks" aided Diegel, and necessarily worked against the Haig. One down at the seventh, Diegel captured the eighth to square one match with a par four to Hagen's bogey.

Diegel's drive into a bunker, which he bounced back toward the green. He chipped up nicely and putted in. Meanwhile Hagen found a trap, had a poor out and missed a putt to finally take a six.

The twenty-first hole brought Diegel a three up lead after he had hooked his drive into a fence and the ball had bounced back into the fairway. He eventually posted a birdie three to Hagen's four.

Hagen won back the twenty-second hole, but Diegel's lead was too big to overcome.

CLUBS EXPECTED TO ABOLISH PRACTICE

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—The important question of allowing radio broadcasting of baseball games in the American League will come up for consideration at the club owners meet in the Hotel Commodore, New York, next Tuesday.

E. S. Barnard, president of the league, indicated today that the owners might decide to follow the decision of Phil Ball, owner of the St. Louis Browns, in denying the privilege of broadcasting from the St. Louis park for the 1930 season.

President Barnard said broadcasting of baseball games has become a business—an advertising business—with no financial returns going to the baseball clubs which provide the entertainment.

"When the broadcasting of baseball games first came up for discussion," President Barnard said today, "baseball men were opposed to it for the reason they believed it would hurt the circulation of newspapers. Later on, some of the club owners figured it would hurt the attendance at their games."

PROGRAMME WITHOUT COST

"Now we need discuss neither phase of this question. Radio broadcasting has become a business, and it is a business which provides the entertainment."

Reports have reached President Barnard that one broadcasting station, giving a radio description of games in one American League park, has advertising contracts for 1930 totaling $90,000 for baseball alone.

American League expects the stand against the practice of some clubs creating artificial double-headers by means of calling off regularly-scheduled games, upon the slightest provocation. The league is opposed to such practice, President Barnard said, and he believes that every game should be played on the date it is scheduled if it is possible to do so.

Cochet, Lacoste Ranked Best in French Tennis

PARIS, Dec. 6.—The French tennis ranking committee issued a new list for the 1929 campaign tonight, with Henri Cochet and Rene Lacoste grouped together in first place. Jean Borotra was third and Christian Bussan and Jacques Brugnon tied for fourth.

In the women's ranking Madame Mathie was first, followed by Madame Lefaurie, Madame Andrieux and Madame Cismendi in that order. Mesdemoiselle Barber, Neufend and Metaxa were grouped together in fifth place.

How Overlapping Grip Is Used

By SOL METZGER

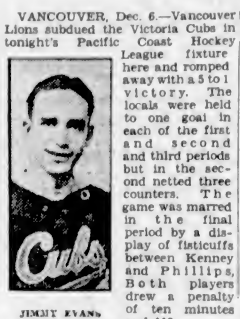

The overlapping grip seems to be the one that has proven most successful. It supplants the palm grip many years ago. The argument in its favor over the interlocking grip is that it not only ties the hands together so they will work in unison, but also allows for more give. What is meant by "give" will be cleared in another article.

You take the overlapping grip by putting the end joint of the little finger of the right hand over the top of the middle joint of the first finger of the left hand. The sketch shows how this is done after taking the club first. In the left hand, note how the left thumb is down the shaft. Next—a point to watch in taking the overlapping grip.

CUBS TAKE ANOTHER ON CHIN

Vancouver Trounces Victoria Icemen, 5-1 In Hectic Encounter

Free-for-All Brews as Kenny and Phillips Wage War—Policeman Untangles Principals—Esks Defeat Bucks, 2-1

JIMMY EVANS

VANCOUVER, Dec. 6.—Vancouver Lions subdued the Victoria Cubs in tonight's Pacific Coast Hockey League fixture here and romped away with a 5-1 victory. The locals were held to one goal in each of the first and second and third periods but in the fourth period they netted three goals. The game was marred in the first period by a display of fist-fighting between Kenny and Phillips. Both players drew a penalty of ten minutes and $10.

The 1,000 odd fans saw a hockey game and a slugging one-round scrap for the price of one admission. That's where the bargain comes in. Beaten in all the departments of the game after the first canto, the Cubs faded in the second when the Lions' sharpshooters shook the netting three times and failed to stay the pace in the final session. Then they began handing out body checks, slashed, hooked and tripped until war broke out.

It was a short and merry tangle with Phillips and Kenny staging the headline attraction. Bill had been ridden hard by the Cub defense all through, and just when the fans were about to head for the exits he took exception to one of Kenny's jabs and swung the hickory with gay abandon.

Kenny moved in and wanted to know what it was all about. Kenny landed a right haymaker which landed the Lions' skipper, who never got a chance to get the point back. The players crowded in until a blue-coat appeared on the scene and helped untangle the boys. The line-ups:

Vancouver	Goal	Robertson
Jerry	Defence	Kenny
Brennan	Defence	Phillips
Arnott	Defence	H. Runge
Beattie	Forward	Kelly
Sanderson	Forward	Williamson
Phillips	Forward	Lowe
Cummings	Forward	P. Runge

C.P.S. CAGERS DOWN NANAIMO BY LONE POINT

Score Is 16-15 in Exhibition Basketball Game at High School Gymnasium—West Road Defeats Sons

HIGH SCHOOL WINS FROM COLLEGE

Nanaimo's cage team failed to come up to expectations at the Victoria High School gymnasium last night on the occasion of their initial visit of the season, and went down to a 16-15 defeat at the hands of Ernie Harwood's C.P.S. hoop squad in an exhibition game.

In the two City Basketball League fixtures, which preceded the inter-city tussle, High School "A" inter-mediate team, defeated Victoria College, 47-26, while West Road men's "B" cagers meted out a 41-28 setback to the Sons of Canada.

The Nanaimo-C.P.S. battle was a close-checking affair, in which the work of the guards stood out. The forwards, and there were plenty of them, had an off night, finding great difficulty in ringing the leather. The score at the rest interval stood four all. However, the Canadian Puget Sound representatives took a five-point lead in the last few minutes of the game and managed to ward off the strong challenge of the visitors in the dying moments and breeze through to a 16-15 victory.

Nanaimo dropped home three foul shots early, to take the lead, but the locals wiped out this deficit and took a lone point by scoring two field baskets. Another free shot just before half-time gave Nanaimo their tying point.

The second half saw first one team and then the other take a small lead. Towards the end of the battle Victoria gained a five-point lead, and despite a great fight on the part of the visitors, they managed to finish on the long end of the score.

The visitors netted seven of their total fifteen points from foul shots and, like the locals, missed a great many more. In fact, the shooting on both teams left much to be desired. Victoria scored but two of their points on foul shots. The teams:

C.P.S.—Butler (2), Davis (3), Viggers (2), Martin (2), Bissell (1), Fagerberg and Woodbridge.
Nanaimo—Bradshaw (2), Walcott, Watchorn (3), Waugh, Kula (8), Hawthorthwaite (2), Styles and Cameron.

MOOSE JAW, Dec. 6.—Primed to match bulk with the six, Thomas Tigers, pride of Eastern Rugby, Moose Jaw Maroons, Western Canada Junior Rugby champions, are anxiously awaiting the whistle which will set them off in quest of Dominion laurels tomorrow. This is the first time Moose Jaw has ever defeated a team from the West, having been won by the Regina Pats last season.

MINIATURE RIFLE PROGRAMME WILL BE CARRIED OUT

At a meeting of the Victoria and District Military Rifle Association held last night at the Armories, Lieutenant Dave Pyrie was elected as secretary pro tem. The annual general meeting of the association will be held in January when officers will be elected for the year. Lieutenant Pyrie was asked to draw up plans for a series of miniature rifle range shoots during the Winter months.

Ball Writers to Meet

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—James Crum-Inberry, president of the Baseball Writers' Association of America, today called a meeting of the association to be held in the Hotel Belmont, New York, December 12, at which time the major leagues will be in session.

WEST ROAD WIN

Gaining an eleven-point lead in the first half, West Road, men's "B," walked off with a 41-28 victory over the Sons of Canada. In the second half the Canadians put up a better fight and were only outscored by two points.

The Teams

West Road—G. Lannon (8), Parrott (8), M. Lannon (2), C. Stueggitt (3), Claude Stueggitt (10) and Andrews (9).

Sons of Canada—Jack Taylor, Greenwood (8), Nicol (8), Blair (4), Gandy (6) and John Taylor (2).

Allan LeMarquand handled all three games.

Bruce Flowers Wins

DETROIT, Dec. 6.—Bruce Flowers, New Rochelle, N.Y., won a technical knockout over Pinky Kaufman, Bridgeport, Conn., in the sixth round of a scheduled ten-round bout here tonight. Kaufman's seconds threw in a towel after about one minute of fighting in the sixth round. Flowers weighed 136 and Kaufman 140 pounds.

Esquimalt Is Eliminated From Fragments Cup Play

Victoria Schools' Eleven Wins Opening Soccer Match for Coveted Trophy, 4-0—Stevens Performs Hat Trick

Playing a pretty combination game in which their much lighter opponents failed to cope with Victoria Schools' football representatives advanced to the second round of the Fragments Cup of France Cup competition yesterday afternoon at the Oak Bay Park by defeating Esquimalt, 4-0.

Esquimalt was far from the team that put Victoria out of the play in the long ago. Their defence was comprised of players of diminutive stature, and before the first half was concluded their energy was sapped. In the second half the local boys had things their own way and bombarded Esquimalt's citadel from all angles.

Judging from yesterday's exhibition it looks as if Victoria will be the team to beat to win the coveted piece of silverware, which is now held by Saanich. Their back division is like a stone wall to penetrate, while their front line of attack works together like a well-oiled machine.

From the kick-off, Victoria went on the offensive and practically kept it up during the whole of the initial period. But try as they did Victoria forwards failed to drive home the leather, although on several occasions they came mighty close to it.

The opening goal came after twenty-five minutes had elapsed and it could be put in the books as a lucky one. Victoria were on attack playing the old punt from Malkin & Esquimalt's net custodian, came out of his goal to punch the leather clear.

Stevens Scores Opener
In his anxiety he just tipped the ball with his fist and "Tubby" Stevens, flashy centre forward, dashed in on it and pushed the ball into the net. Stevens, who holds down inside right position for the Jokers in the senior league, was in a class by himself on the field and was the big noise in Victoria's one-sided victory. A few minutes after this goal the whistle sounded for the rest period.

With the changing of ends, Victoria continued their offensive tactics and in a more pronounced manner. Less than five minutes after the half started Stevens put the final touches to one of his team's pretty forward rushes and beat Esquimalt's goalie at close quarters with a fast, low shot. Not long after the kick-off, Parker, on the left, made the count stand 3-0 by sending in a well-directed drive which Collins had no chance to save. Jack O'Kelly, right winger for the city eleven, executed a fine individual rush and worked his way in near the goal but his fast shot hit the crossbar. Twice Stevens got in close enough to score, but he hit the bar once and then smashed one over the goal.

However, Stevens completed the hat trick by driving home his third goal ten minutes from time.

Two or three times Esquimalt broke away on rushes, but they were repulsed when they hit Victoria's defence. Not once during the entire game did Timothy, local goalie, have a shot to save.

The teams were as follows:
Victoria—Timothy, Burnett, Bridges, Levy, Payne, Douglas, O'Kelly, Fraser, Stevens, Parker and Lawson.
Esquimalt—Collins, Davies, Bligh, Winch, Townsend, Buxton, Thompson, Buxton, Wright and Ryley.

DAVIES-BURGE CONFIDENT OF WIN TONIGHT

Fast Mix Expected When Featherweights Enter Ring at Tillicums' Gym—Show Will Start at 8:45

JUMBO DAVIES TO TAKE ON WING HAY

After perusing the programme of boxing which the Victoria Boxing Club will present this evening at the Tillicums' Club gymnasium, it looks as if the fans are going to witness some of the finest matches that have ever been offered here for some time. The main interest is focused in the ten-round main event between Aible Davies, a local product, and Tommy Burge, English boxer, who has been a resident of this city for the last year or so.

These two fighters are the most outstanding featherweight boxers in the Northwest today. As the winner of tonight's bout will step into big money matches, while the loser goes down the ladder again into the preliminary class, both fighters will try their utmost to get the decision. The ability of both fighters is well known to the ringworms and they do not have to bother with figuring out whether the usual ballyhoo pertaining to the ability of imported fighters is true or not.

Both boys have a large following. Davies by virtue of his defeat here of such boxers as Harvey Holliday, Harry Pollett, George Alnoworth and Eddie Graham, and out-of-town wins over Eddie Thomson, Jack Kelley, Harvey Holliday and Eddie Graham, and other well-known ringmen. Burge won his way into the hearts of the fans when he put up such a wonderful showing here against Tommy Fielding.

There has been considerable wagering on the outcome of the fight, most of the bets having been made at even money. Davies states that he feels confident in coping the verdict at the end of the tenth round. He expects the going to be tough for five or six rounds, but is confident, however, that his youth and superior strength will enable him to stand the pace much better than his opponent.

Burge predicts that he will win by a knockout. He bases his opinion on greater speed, heavier hitting ability and superior knowledge of the fine points of the game.

FINE SEMI-WIND-UP
The semi-wind-up will bring together two other splendid fighters. In a six-round set-to Jumbo Davies tackles a tough proposition in Wing Hay, the fighting Chinese boxer from Alberni. This bout is well worthy of the feature spot on any programme, both boys being good. Jumbo is probably the harder hitter of the two and can assimilate punishment better than his opponent. Hay has a big edge in age, experience and physical development.

The preliminary bouts will bring together Boston Jimmy Duffy and Eddie Judson in a return four-round encounter. These two bat-tlers fought a draw three weeks ago, and it is expected that tonight's go will be just as thrilling. The other bout will be between Kid Stubbs, the hard-hitting Irishman from Alberni, and Jimmy Ketchell, a slugging, two-fisted battler who is now located at Port Angeles. Both these fighters are tough hombres. They can both hit and possess great powers of assimilation, so a real slugfest should be witnessed.

The first bout will get under way at 8:45 sharp. The referee for the bouts is being selected by the newly formed boxing commission. No announcement of its choice has been handed out.

The rest of the officials are as follows:
Timekeepers—Harry Stanley and Bob Edwards.
Announcer—Captain B. Martin, D.S.O.
Physician—Dr. J. P. Vye.

WILLOWS WIN FROM DUNCAN TO KEEP LEAD

Defeat Visiting Badminton Team in Second Division Fixture on Home Courts by 10-8 Score

STILL UNBEATEN IN LEAGUE GAMES

Willows racquet wielders remained on top of the Second Division of the Lower Island Badminton League by their splendid victory over Duncan last night on their home courts, 10-8. By their win they also kept their slate clean of defeats, and are the only entrants in the league that have not taken a setback this season. Garrison and Duncan, the other teams in division, have each tasted defeat at least once.

"TRY A NIP TONIGHT"

There is a deal of truth in the old saying that one can judge a man by the company he keeps," says Sir Charles Petrie. But one can judge him better by the company he promotes.

Cumberland Council Adheres to December 17 for Consultation
With Lighting Company

CUMBERLAND, Dec. 6.—At a special meeting of the Cumberland City Council with Mayor Alex. Maclellan presiding and Aldermen C. J. Leitch and J. Williams present, held last night, it was unanimously decided that the meeting originally set by the arbitrators in the matter of the proposed purchase of the Cumberland Electric Lighting Company's assets be adhered to.

The electric light company was desirous of obtaining a further extension and asked for the meeting to be held on January 17 instead of December 17.

The special meeting was held in answer to a letter sent by the city clerk to the solicitor for the city, Mr. McQuinn, and after hearing the reply from the solicitor the council unanimously decided that the meeting be held on December 17 and that Mayor Maclellan be present at the meeting, which would be held in the city of Vancouver.

An informal talk followed the regular business and it appeared to be the opinion of all the aldermen that a second postponement of the meeting was hardly necessary.

DESERT DATES

The date tree is unusual in that the male and female flowers grow on separate trees. For this reason the lady tree isn't very much good without a male tree somewhere in the vicinity. Dates were originally a Mohammedan or Arabian product, and growers still follow the "harem" custom. They usually plant one male date tree for each acre of female date trees.

The history of date growing is older than the history of civilization, and we find it outlined both as to culture and methods of serving in the clay tablets of ancient Assyria. It is almost the national industry of the Arabs, and we are always closely associating the name of dates with the Arabian sheiks riding across the immense desert regions on camels. The Arabs have long since held the date in great esteem, since it is a very satisfying food, due to the large amount of carbohydrates which it contains, and its concentrated food value is important to those who cross dreary wastes where every ounce counts.

Dates are one of the few foods which can be grown in the desert regions of the world where there are long sunny days with a high temperature and dry air. One date tree may give as much as a hundred pounds of fruit per year. Even one bunch of dates sometimes weighs as much as thirty pounds.

The Persian Gulf is the centre which supplies the world, although the date crop from Coschella Valley in California is now becoming famous for a very splendid type of date. Nine-tenths of the imported dates are brought in from Smyrna, Turkey and Arabia, where they are gathered in bunches by a whole line of boys swarming right up the tree trunks, clear from the ground to the fruit. The top boy cuts the bunch and hands it down to the others. The fruit is usually packed by women, loaded on camels, and carried across the desert.

The Deglet Noor is held to be one of the choicest of the many hundreds of known varieties. It is a beautifully colored, transparent amber. It grows in the hottest sections of the Sahara desert. Pared dates are smaller and usually of a dark brown color. Other dates vary in size and consistency. Some are like hard bread and taste like dried cake. Others are so soft and mushy that they cannot be shipped to market.

Dates vary greatly in composition. They usually contain from fifty per cent to seventy per cent of sugar to eleven per cent pectin and gums, two per cent to seven per cent protein, and 1.6 per cent mineral matter.

A diet of milk with a few dates will sustain life for many months. The two together form a very nutritious luncheon. A delicious date salad can be made by placing cottage cheese on leaves of lettuce or spinach, and covering the cottage cheese with pitted, cleaned dates.

Dates should be given to children by thoughtful mothers, since the date supplies them with a natural and harmless sweet. Because of their large sugar content, it is better not to combine dates with starches, because of the danger of fermentation.

FRANCE RETURNS TO FRENCH BREAD

Record Wheat Crop and Heavy Supplies Enable Country to Become Independent for Flour

PARIS, Dec. 6.—France is returning to virtually all-French bread. Under new legislation for the assistance of the farmer, the Ministry of Agriculture, has fixed the quantity of French flour which is to go into the making of French bread at 97 per cent. This proportion will not be modified, unless there is a shortage in French flour, or if the holders compromise the country's food supply by restricting their offers of flour or demanding exaggerated prices.

The minister's intention is to return to the good, pre-war French bread, which M. Hennessy describes as "tasty, strengthening, easy to digest and health-giving; which with French wine has contributed to the endowment of our race with its qualities of vigor and endurance."

CHECK IS KEPT

The prefects are to report in January, February and March on the progress in their respective departments accomplished under the new regulations.

"Under the law," the minister observes, "I am entitled to control the price of bread."

The minister's action results from the record wheat crop in France. In consequence of heavy supplies, the price of wheat dropped below the level at which wheat could be profitably grown, according to the farmers. The measures also include an increase in the duty on foreign wheat.

The wheat bureau which will make a special study of markets and of scientific methods of stimulating wheat growing will also be created.

The professor of English was taking a class of young students, some of whom showed distinct signs of boredom. He had been carefully explaining the difference between the subject and the object, in various sentences.

"Now," said he, "take this sentence for an example: 'The lorry ran over John.' Now what would 'John' be?"

The young student in front sniggered quietly. "Er—the indefinite article!"
